L&D's ciggie policy goes up in smoke

BY CHRISTINA JOHNSON

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON & Dunstable Hospital will perform a U-turn on its smoking policy and fork out £10,000 on special 'shelters' for puffers.

Having banned smoking anywhere on its grounds in 2007, the L&D has now backtracked and will allow it in three designated areas.

The hospital originally made its entire premises a 'No Smoking' zone four years ago when it became illegal to smoke in an enclosed public place.

But a survey last summer by the L&D's security team revealed nearly one in five of those found smoking on the grounds refused to extinguish their cigarettes when asked.

The hospital has already obtained planning permission to erect the shelters, which will cost an estimated £10,800, and also install litter bins for cigarette ends at an additional £2,900 - at a total cost of £13,700.

In December, Luton on Sunday exclusively revealed 200 jobs were set to go at the L&D throughout 2011.

Amanda Sandford, a spokeswoman for Action on Smoking and Health, said: "Some hospitals have taken this decision that this is the best option to deal with smokers."

"We support NHS premises that are totally smoke free and ideally that should be ascribed to.

"We understand it can be quite difficult to maintain though."

John Toomey, regional organiser for Unison, said: "While we are certainly supportive of measures to really cut down on smoking in hospitals we also try to be realistic on this situation."

"The money they will spend on it would not have been as expensive had the L&D done this years ago."

"I suppose it's to provide a small comfort for staff and patients who do smoke. Money can always be better spent."

In a statement the L&D said: "We've undertaken a number of measures to encourage smokers to quit the habit, with notices and the provision of free advice and support at the L&D from the Luton Stop Smoking service which is available to both staff and patients."

"The L&D is taking action to ensure the entrances and grounds are kept free of unwelcome cigarette smoke and related litter."

"Providing smoking shelters does not mean that smokers are being encouraged, it simply gives the hospital more control to restrict the presence of smokers."

"With smoking shelters on site, a much more strict approach will be taken and smokers will not be allowed to persist in smoking around the hospital entrances or anywhere else on site except in the designated shelters."

A spokeswoman added: "It is not illegal. We can't physically make people stop smoking but we can provide a place in a discreet area and take a much stricter stance and say 'you are not allowed to smoke here, there are designated areas.'"

There is no date confirmed for when the shelters will be bought and installed.

WANTED: Leanne Burris

Cops hunting woman burglar who should now be in prison

THIS woman was jailed for burgling her 89-year-old neighbour and held a kitchen knife to his throat - but is on the run from justice.

Police released this picture of Leanne Burris, 25, who repeatedly scrounged money from the victim, who she knew, in Althorp Road, Luton. He had even pushed her in her pram when she was a baby.

On Wednesday, Judge Richard Foster handed Burris a six year sentence - but she was not present at the Luton Crown Court hearing, having been missing since January when she was convicted of burglary and aggravated burglary.

After her arrest in July last year, she was found a place at a bail

'Dangerous' medicine stolen

A BAG containing 'potentially dangerous' drugs has been stolen from the back of an ambulance.

A green paramedic's responder bag was stolen between 11.34pm on Tuesday and 12.05am Wednesday while a crew was inside a house attending a 999 call in Garden Road, Dunstable.

The drugs are used to treat conditions such as heart attacks, diabetes, anaphylactic shock, asthma and overdoses.

Ambulance service spokesman Gary Sanderson said: "First and foremost this is a despicable act to carry out on an ambulance while they were on duty. The drugs that have been stolen are potentially dangerous in the wrong hands and could prove fatal if used incorrectly."

Detective Chief Inspector Greg Horsford said: "Theft of any kind is deplorable but theft from the back of an ambulance is particularly abhorrent."

"We would urge anyone who comes across this bag, or the drugs, to contact us immediately. "We are also keen to speak to anyone who, with hindsight, recalls seeing anything suspicious in Garden Road or knows of someone trying to sell a quantity of drugs."

Contact police on 01234 841212.

Drugs made Burris 'erratic' and 'violent' to neighbour

hostel in Lambeth. She was supposed to report to police daily but she never turned up at the hostel and was circulated as a wanted person.

Back in January her victim, now 90, said he felt sorry for her when she got older and paid her to do some cleaning and would also give her money for her rent.

He said: "She was quite helpful then but she went on drugs and it was hopeless then. She became very erratic and would get violent and I stopped letting her in."

Prosecutor Piers Vonberg said that on July 25 the victim was taking an afternoon nap when she climbed in through his bedroom window and took £5 from his trousers and then searched about downstairs.

The pensioner reported that matter to police but two days later he woke in the morning to find her in his bedroom holding a kitchen knife to his throat.

He said: "She said she was going to kill me for reporting her to police. I said if she was going to do it to make it quick because I didn't deserve to suffer. He said she found some more cash and wanted his bank Post Office card but he gave her an old one and she left, later ringing the house in a rage because she could not get any money out."

She was arrested the same day. She told police that on the first occasion she had gone to the house to repay him some money but when she got no reply she became worried and climbed up to the bedroom window.

She said on July 27 she had gone to borrow some money to buy drugs but denied threatening him with a knife.

PC Chris Avery said: "The court acknowledged that during these incidents Burris had caused so much stress and fear of violence for the victim that the sentence was reflective of this."

"We are continuing to search for Burris and anyone who knows of her whereabouts is urged to contact the police, in confidence, on 01582 394252, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111."

Council boss could be grilled over costly deal

EXCLUSIVE

BY ADAM THOMPSON
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

THE chief executive of a Bedfordshire council could face questioning following a deal that cost taxpayers more than £7 million in compensation.

Richard Carr, who is the chief executive of Central Bedfordshire Council, could be called back to Wolverhampton City Council to explain his part in a partnership which saw a £68m deal with computer system firm, Axon Solution, that was eventually scrapped.

Wolverhampton Council is carrying out an internal investigation into the deal which was recommended for the go-ahead by Mr Carr.

The council chief said: "When I was recruited to Central Bedfordshire I highlighted this issue because I had recommended that a review take place and fully expected to take part in it. One of the reasons that such a review is important is so that the facts can be accurately reported and understood. Now that Wolverhampton has initiated the process I will be happy to speak with Patricia Hughes, who is leading it.

REVIEW OF SCHEME:
Chief executive Richard Carr

"I am sure there will be lessons to be learnt from this project but it would be wrong for anyone to pre-judge the findings and conclusions of the review at this point."

It was due to save residents £126.6m over ten years but was ditched soon after the Tory party came to power at the council in 2009.

Wolverhampton's council officers claimed the system had a number of risks and members decided the authority couldn't afford and wouldn't deliver savings predicted.

Its chief executive Simon Warren said: "The council has appointed Patricia Hughes to complete a 'lessons learnt' review on the proposed Axon contract and settlement."

"The review will involve consideration of all the documentation surrounding the matter and interviews with elected members, officers - including those who have subsequently left the authority and external agencies."

"However, the final list of people that Mrs Hughes will interview has not yet been confirmed."

Residents get £7k for council consultations

NEARLY £7,000 has been paid out since 2009 to residents for taking part in consultations.

During 2009/10, Luton Borough Council paid £1,080 in cash and vouchers, while the figure for the following year rose to £5,710.

In February, the council revealed it spent nearly £2,500 on hosting a consultation day for 750 residents last year. The cost included the venue hire, £20 expenses for all participants and hospitality.

Cllr Michael Garrett, leader of the Town Hall's Conservative group, criticised the use of vouchers as incentives.

He said: "I don't think they're paid too much but I don't believe in the principle of getting information through using incentives to get people to attend meetings."

"I am not against people on low incomes getting the price of their travel on the bus or taxi but I'm strongly against the principle of giving them vouchers."

A council spokesman said: "Incentives to attend meetings are sometimes helpful when we particularly need feedback from a wide range of people from different backgrounds, especially from those who would not usually get involved."

"The Consultation Institute (the national best practice organisation on consultation) is supportive of this approach. We do offer vouchers, usually The Mall shopping vouchers, on certain occasions where a high percentage of residents at the event are likely to be on benefits and a cash payment could affect their entitlements."

Operation success will prevent burglary surge

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

NEARLY 200 arrests have been made in just two weeks in a major police operation.

Nine prolific thieves and 185 'named suspects' for low level crimes were apprehended across the county by Bedfordshire Police during the second half of March.

The nine 'top tier' offenders, who were wanted by the force for burglary or car crime, were arrested or charged and remanded in custody.

John Fletcher, deputy chief constable of Bedfordshire Police (left), said the operation will not only reassure the public but have criminals looking over their shoulders waiting for a knock on their door.

He said: "The arrest of these burglars and reduction in named suspects is significant and reflects our determination to fight crime and protect the public.

"Traditionally the number of homes broken into goes up at this time of year so it was important that we target these individuals and prevent that spike from happening again.

"This operation is of course 'business as usual' as we are carrying out these types of arrests every day, but focusing on burglars in this way sends a significant message we hope.

"The arrest of 185 additional offenders in just two weeks has been significant. Of course it is our aim to get named suspects in custody on a regular basis but this 'clear-up' will mean more offenders are brought to justice as a result of this sustained effort."

Third arrest made by police in shooting case

A THIRD man has been arrested on suspicion of attempted murder in connection with a shooting last year.

The victim was shot on September 28 at around 10.30pm in Olympic Close, Luton, and members of the public dialled 999 after finding him on the pavement with three gunshot wounds. More than six months later he remains in a serious condition in hospital.

On Tuesday a 32-year-old was arrested in connection with the police investigation. He has now been released on bail pending further investigations.

Detective Chief Inspector Mark Ross said: "This investigation is still ongoing and we will leave no stone unturned to find out who was responsible for this shooting.

"We are still appealing to members of the public to come forward with information and I would reassure anyone who wishes to speak to the police that they can do so confidentially.

"Every piece of information given to us will be pursued to ensure this investigation reaches a satisfactory conclusion and those responsible are put before the courts."

Anyone with information can contact police, in confidence, on 01707 355959, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Balaclava gang storm flat in the early hours

BALACLAVA-WEARING men forced their way into a flat and covered the face of a victim with a pillow in a terrifying attack.

Three to four men broke through the main door of the building on Monday at 4.10am in Hightown Road, Luton, and ran up the stairs to the flat. They then threatened the 28-year-old resident, covered his face with a pillow and searched the premises before leaving with a mobile phone, power tools and a set of keys.

It is believed the attackers, who all wore balaclavas, got into a blue Vauxhall Corsa before leaving the area.

Detective Constable Dean

Dhinsa is keen to trace anyone who saw the men arriving or leaving the scene.

He said: "Although the victim was not injured this was still a shock to him. The offenders must have made a lot of noise getting in to the property and I would appeal to anyone who may have heard or witnessed anything suspicious in the Hightown Road area that night to come forward and speak to the police."

Anyone with information about this incident can contact Det Con Dhinsa at Luton Police Station, on 01582 394262, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Under-fire council leader hits back at the Lib Dems

EXCLUSIVE

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE leader of the Liberal Democrats in Luton has criticised the council leader for 'not knowing the details' of the sale of the old Drill Hall site.

But the Town Hall's Labour chief hit back saying she is 'horrified the Lib Dems are playing the politics of race with this issue' of the building on Old Bedford Road, Luton.

The Drill Hall (right) has been a subject of contention after its sale, in which Shia group Masjid-E-Ali was given the status of 'preferred bidder', was suspended last month.

An assessment will be made as to whether it should instead be used to meet housing and educational needs.

At a council meeting on Tuesday night a petition was presented to councillors from 2,000 residents of High Town asking for the site to be used for housing needs.

Lib Dem leader Cllr David Franks said: "At the public meeting held on March 24

Labour council leader Hazel Simmons said she did not know one of the groups bidding for the site had been given the status of 'preferred bidder', did not know that negotiations were proceeding and did not know the name of the preferred bidder until the local press broke the story.

"There is no excuse for the leader of the council not knowing the details of the sale of this prime town centre site."

Cllr Simmons said: "I am horrified that the Lib Dems are playing the politics of race with this issue and treating the residents of High Town with such contempt, desperately trying to stir up trouble around such a sensitive subject."

"We have already apologised for the way we handled this. My question is when are the Lib Dems going to apologise for their sustained and vicious assault on Luton's people?"

Lowered Hatters Way speed limit causes Town Hall row

THE reduction of the speed limit on one of Luton's major roads came under fire at Tuesday's night full council meeting.

Town Hall Conservative group leader Cllr Michael Garrett asked why the Hatters Way speed limit had been reduced from 40 mph to 30 mph.

It was cut in November 2010 until construction of the Luton Dunstable Busway is completed in May 2012, when the limit will revert to 40mph.

At the meeting Cllr Garrett argued 'people do not understand' what speed they should be doing since the change has caused confusion. In response to his comments, Labour Cllr Roy Davis said: "It is intended to provide a safer working environment in this vicinity."

"In Hatters Way there will be an enormous amount of work going on and very large vehicles around."

"It would be unsafe if the speed limit was not reduced."

Speaking after the meeting Cllr Garrett said: "I travel down there at night and you get people flashing their lights at you because you're going too slow."

"I think it could be the cause of more accidents."

Cops reply to blast from angry resident

EXCLUSIVE

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN whose trailer was stolen from outside his house – and has the crime captured on a neighbour's CCTV – has complained about the police response.

The CCTV footage shows what appears to be a white tipper truck driving up Hyde Road, Caddington, before pulling up on to the grass verge on Monday afternoon.

Three men get out, make their way on to the drive of resident Colin Clark, grab his trailer and drag it to the truck which then pulls off.

Mr Clark, 54, said: "I left the house around 1.05pm and the trailer was there.

"From the CCTV I've seen that at around 1.20pm a truck pulled up and three men got out and took it.

"I told the police about this and what annoys me is the police's attitude. There's no policing basically.

"They gave me a crime reference number and said they would get back to me as soon as possible.

"I bet the trailer has been sold or being used for scrap metal so

I'm not hopeful that I'll get it back.

"If the police had responded quicker they may have recognised the van or the people and nicked them – but they just left it."

The CCTV footage came from Mr Clark's neighbour, Patrick Smith, who lives opposite him.

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "Officers have spoken to the victim of this crime, and had attempted to obtain the camera evidence from the neighbour. Unfortunately, the neighbour was repeatedly obstructive and impolite towards officers who contacted him and an officer was therefore only able to see the images on Friday, after also calling at the house twice.

"On viewing the images, it was established there was no identification possible from the poor quality of images taken by the camera."

We contacted Mr Smith regarding Bedfordshire Police's claims. He declined to comment.

Luton's Lord decides to step down as a councillor

EXCLUSIVE

christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

AFTER 15 years as a councillor, Lord Qurban Hussain (left) has announced he will not be standing in next month's local elections.

Cllr Hussain, 53, who represents Luton Borough Council's Biscot ward, was first elected in 1996 as a Labour councillor but switched to the Liberal Democrats because of the Iraq War.

In November 2010 Cllr Hussain was unveiled as one of the new peers for the House of Lords and he gave his maiden speech last month when he addressed the Upper House for the first time. On Tuesday he addressed Luton's full council at the Town Hall for the last time, saying: "I have enjoyed my time here and I would like to thank the people I have worked with – officers, members of my party and members of different parties."

"Over time we may have had bitter arguments but it was in the best interests of the constituents."

"I'd like to thank my Liberal Democrat colleagues who in many ways are dear friends. I would also like to thank all the people who congratulated me when I was elevated to the House of Lords."

"I am still working with Lord McKenzie for Luton's city status bid."

"Whenever the town needs me I will support it in any way I can. I will still be here."

Battle commences for election candidates

CAMPAIGNING can begin in earnest after the list of more than 300 candidates who are standing in the two council elections in south Bedfordshire was published this week.

The big day of May 5 will see 152 candidates bidding to win places on one of Luton Borough Council's 48 seats, while Central Bedfordshire Council has 175 competing for 59 ward spots.

Residents have until Thursday to register to vote if they are not already on the electoral roll. Polling stations will be open from 7am to 10pm on May 5, when people will also be able to have their say on the national referendum on whether to change the voting system to the Alternative Vote – where candidates are ranked in order of preference.

For information on who is standing for election in your ward visit www.luton-dunstable.co.uk

Alternatively visit www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/elections or www.luton.gov.uk

Hatters should pay rent

SIR - Like Martin Henry in last week's Letters page, I too am a Luton council taxpayer – but unlike him I feel that Luton Town Football Club should be paying rent for their use of the Kenilworth Road ground.

Not only that, they should be forced to cough up for the unpaid rent of the past 22 years. Just my opinion of course.

Geoff Lokey
Willenhall Close, Luton

Politicians don't get it

SIR - No one will be surprised that high street shops are struggling.

I own a house. The gas and electricity I need to run it are very expensive. It's the same with petrol. If you own a car, you've got no choice but to pay the price.

Then it's down to the supermarket, to spend the last of my wages on food.

After these vultures have cleaned me out, there's nothing left to go shopping with.

Try and explain this to a politician. They just don't understand.

John Tucker
Bracklesham Gardens, Luton

AV better than nothing

SIR - I would like to disagree with Steve Lowe's views in his column on the AV system last week.

He seems to think that without the French system where the final choice is between the two front-runners, we should stick with 'first past the post'.

Surely a big problem with first past the post is that we don't know who the two front-runners are.

Voters often know they don't want the Tories to get in, so instead of voting for the party of their choice they vote for the party they think can keep the Tories out.

With AV they can vote for the party of their choice and if that ends up being a party that is not in the running, their second choice can then be taken into account.

AV is not the PR system I would have preferred but it is better than first past the post when we often get a government that more than half the electorate definitely did not want.

Lyn Bliss
Luton Green Party
Liverpool Road, Luton

Fears raised over bombs

SIR - I am writing regarding your front page story concerning the finding of a Second World War bomb last week.

It is a well known fact that all sorts of different sites were used during the war for various reasons to do with training and weapons.

It does alarm me somewhat to think there are things which should have been disposed of a long time ago which are still potentially dangerous and are unknown to the authorities.

Of course this could just be much ado about nothing, but you never know do you?

I don't see why the Army can't just go down there and sort it out once and for all.

I realise it's private land but it looks like it's in the middle of nowhere, so how are you supposed to know

How will Tories change town for the better?

SIR - My letter on March 27 obviously went completely over the heads of Conservative Councillor Margaret Simons and Mr Gay.

Reality check Cllr Simons. People are dying across the entire Middle East at the hands of their governments, so why do you and your party choose Libya? Is it about the people, or the oil, or a hidden political agenda?

Do you read Luton on Sunday? Obviously not as you would know the common concerns in articles and letters are loss of jobs, cuts in council funding, cuts in services, rising prices, potholes, and diatribes from politicians.

Let's clear up your statement. I 'rubbished' your lack of policies and your party's policy on Libya, not Limbury residents. You said the next newsletter will have 'more political substance'. I rest my case.

Cllr Simons, how is your party's war to be paid for?

More council cuts? Increased taxes? Increasing the debt? Monetising the debt?

Are you saying Limbury residents will not be affected? Instead of engaging in semantics and meaningless words, answer the questions and explain how 'you' will 'change Luton for the better'.

You consider yourself 'in touch'; please explain why you only received 844 votes, just 14.7 per cent of the Luton Borough Council Limbury ward electorate last election?

you're not trespassing until it's too late and a bomb's exploded?

It seems bizarre to me that the Ministry of Defence either doesn't know what's going on or won't reassure the public there's nothing to worry about.

J Beagrie
Farley Hill, Luton

Shame of jobless youth

SIR - I noticed in your newspaper last week something that really disappoints me – young people out of work.

Apparently there are more than 2,800 young people out of work in Luton. What an absolute shame for them, and what a loss to the economy.

I'm not talking about those who cannot be bothered to work, just those who want a job but can't get one.

When you are young, the world is your oyster, and you are supposed to be building for your future. But what can these youngsters do? Nothing.

I can understand that there has been a recession and all people are being hit by it still. It's just such a pity that so many young people have no choice but to sit around on their hands doing nothing when they have so much to offer.

I'm sure they can put their time to good use in the meantime, but there's nothing like good old fashioned work to make you feel useful and help provide stability in your life.

I hope those currently out of work find themselves in employment in the not-too-distant future.

Fred Watson
Weatherby, Dunstable

Claim all your benefits

SIR - At a time of economic cuts and welfare reform, millions are facing considerable financial pressures.

With this in mind, it seems startling that two-thirds of those living on low incomes in the UK and who may be entitled to in-work benefits, are not claiming them, according to a Turn2us survey.

Many of those struggling to make ends meet could claim, but don't. Often they don't realise what they are entitled to. This is especially true of groups such as the older generation.

In fact, the Turn2us research shows that nearly nine out of ten low earners are totally unaware of the existence of in-work benefits.

This is despite the fact that two-thirds of those surveyed nationally have recently experienced a fundamental change to their working conditions, be it a decrease in working hours, or a change in salary.

In these uncertain times, it is more important than ever to ensure that everyone is aware of their potential entitlement to welfare benefits and tax credits.

I would urge individuals to access the benefits checker at www.turn2us.org.uk, and check what they might be entitled to, how much and where to claim.

Benefits Awareness Month is running throughout April.

Spread the message and let's get individuals claiming what they may be entitled to.

Edwina Currie
Turn2us

Think about dying horses

SIR - News of horses dying on British racecourses rarely gets published, and yet a new analysis by Animal Aid shows that at least 162 horses suffered this fate over the past 12 months.

Cheltenham is the most lethal course in the country – accounting for 13 of the total number of victims.

Aintree, home of the Grand National, also proved to be treacherous, with four horses dying on a single day at the 2010 three-day meeting.

While these two famous courses proved especially lethal, no fewer than 48 of Britain's 60 racing venues saw at least one thoroughbred fatality, while nine of them witnessed two or more deaths in a single day.

The majority of victims died from broken necks, backs or legs, or from pelvic fractures, tendon injuries, haemorrhages, or heart attacks.

The figures come from Race Horse Deathwatch, an online database established by Animal Aid in March 2007, because the racing industry refuses to publish meaningful information about race-course fatalities.

There can be only two explanations for the industry's silence on this issue. Either it does not care about the horses it kills, or it is fearful of the truth getting out.

For more information visit www.horsedeathwatch.com or contact Animal Aid for a free Horse Racing Action Pack.

Skydiving for charity

SIR - I am writing on behalf of the Meningitis Trust to encourage all of your readers who would like to take part in a truly memorable experience this year, by joining me and taking the leap of faith.

We are organising a skydive with the famous Red Devils on June 7, and I am showing my appreciation for everything our supporters do for us, by doing the one thing I said I would never do – jumping out of a perfectly good plane at 13,000ft.

This 'madness' is to help celebrate the Trust's 25th anniversary of supporting people who have been affected by meningitis.

We still have a few spaces up for grabs and I would be delighted if your readers would join me.

The Meningitis Trust helps around 20,000 people each year through its unique range of professional services and community support, giving vital support to those who have been affected by this life-changing disease.

LuDun needs saving

SIR - I was left confused over the situation with the disabled workshop LuDun after reading the story on page nine in last week's paper.

First the GMB union said a councillor offered them a 'ray of hope' over this matter after announcing they are looking for a new site for it but then the councillor in question – Richard Stay – denied he ever made such a comment.

What on earth is going on? There are clearly some serious communication problems here.

The 24 people who work in LuDun deserve some concrete answers on this matter.

I was sad to learn in February that Central Bedfordshire Council had decided to close it to save £320,000 – pretty much pocket change for an authority that has to make £20 million in cuts.

I for one hope the authority can find a new location or a way to save it.

Jean Hamilton
Castle Hill Road, Tottenhamhoe

Anti-racism is a winner

SIR - I was pleased to see the report in last week's paper about footballers encouraging children to 'show racism the red card'.

It is events such as these which help to educate kids to turn their backs on small-minded views and attitudes.

They are after all the future generation that will be running the country.

I think the campaign is successful because it engages the school pupils on the topic in an interesting fashion and in a different location – in this case Luton Town Football Club – and also uses high-profile footballers who the children look up to as role models.

I hope to see more of these events happening across Luton, which is a place where race relations need to be improved.

Brett Tunstall
Dovehouse Hill, Luton

Dignity in health issues

SIR - Regarding your story last week headlined 'Dr Lesley's work will help to guide the way for patients' dignified care'.

Dignity is such a crucial subject when it comes to healthcare. I know from my own experience.

When one of my relatives passed away after suffering from cancer, he was able to do so with dignity.

I really dread to think how much more difficult the process would have been if this had not been the case.

Of course we can all try to empathise with the experiences of others, but until you actually go through it yourself you can never understand 100 per cent.

The work done by Dr Lesley Baillie is so important and it's fantastic to see what she does and how she tells others about it.

FINGERS CROSSED:
Amanda and Suzanne

Duo hope for retail crown...

NEW business 'Love 2 be Charmed' is waiting to hear if it has done enough to win Luton on Sunday's Retail Factor 2011 competition.

Amanda Turner and Suzanne Gilmore, who only established the Retail Merchandising Unit in The Mall Luton in October 2010, have got their fingers crossed they can secure two months free trading in the centre, a Sony laptop and invaluable start-up training from the National Skills Academy.

If they are successful, Amanda and Suzanne, from Caddington, will be entered into the national final which includes a top prize of a residential stay at the BSSA Oxford Summer School, which is perhaps the finest retail training course in the world.

It is attended by executives from retail giants such as John Lewis, Harvey Nichols and Marks & Spencer. Amanda said: "We have stayed very motivated and worked really hard to please our customers."

"Customers have loved the bracelets and the idea of creating their own has been very popular."

Suzanne said: "We've learnt so much about retailing during the test trading period particularly stock control and item display but also exactly what the Retail Factor is all about and we definitely think we've got it."

Lavinia Douglass, marketing manager at The Mall Luton, said: "Suzanne and Amanda have really thrown themselves into the competition and made the most of the opportunity."

"They are extremely passionate, enthusiastic and motivated and are obviously really enjoying retail and being their own bosses."

Driver filled up and fled

BY CHRISTINA JOHNSON
christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

THIS man with distinctive red sports shoes is wanted by police in connection with the taking of nearly £80 worth of diesel from a filling station without paying.

He was caught on CCTV at 9.46pm on Monday after a silver VW Golf with stolen number plates pulled onto the forecourt at BP Norbury Hill Service Station, in Dunstable Road, Toddington.

The passenger filled the car from a self-service pump but then got back in without making any attempt to pay.

The car, which contained two other people, then drove off.

Do you know who this man is? He is of Asian appearance, aged 25 to 27, 5ft 7 tall and had a shaved head. He was wearing a denim top and blue jeans.

If you can help, contact the police forecourt crime unit, in confidence, on 01582 473113, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

THERE is something posh people seem to dislike more than anything else about the working class, which is them taking foreign holidays.

They can cope with us earning lots of money, drinking champagne, driving Bentleys and even sitting in Parliament (although the new lot draw the line about having any in the Cabinet).

But jetting off to distant sunny climes is somehow beyond the pale. Maybe it is because not so long ago 'the jet set' was an exclusive club populated by the rich and famous. Working class-ers were limited to hop picking in Kent or shivering in bracing Skegness.

There was no chance that the flights to the Cote D'Azur would be populated with a stag week-end from Essex, crying babies and the sort of people who wouldn't be able to tell the difference between a bottle of Krug and a Carlsberg.

Hence the comments by Oliver Letwin, Cabinet minister, millionaire and Old Etonian, saying that he wasn't going to allow more airports to be built because he did not want more people from Sheffield flying away on cheap holidays.

I am not sure Nick Clegg, deputy Prime Minister, million-

Jet-setting working class upset the posh

aire, Westminster School, would be too happy with the city Sheffield being used as shorthand for hoi polloi, as he is member for Sheffield Hallam. But I have little doubt he agrees with the sentiment, except would use reasons of green politics and global warming to ensure the ski slopes and beaches of Europe are reserved for those who have been properly educated.

Not that the working class behave any worse when on holiday, but they simply lack the panache to carry off drunken abuse and assaults without shaming their nation or the independent means or trust funds to pay for their damages and breakages.

Fortunately most of the more desirable holiday resorts are just too expensive for the likes of package tours and cheap airlines to venture into.

So George Osborne, Chancellor of the Exchequer, millionaire, St Paul's School, was not in much danger of meeting redundant steel workers practicing the Full Monty while he was skiing in the exclusive resort of Klosters, Switzerland.

I would not have thought, however, that David Cameron, Prime Minister, millionaire, Old Etonian, will be disappointed by Mr Letwin's remarks as 'Call me Dave' wants to be one of the lads. I am sure a game of football on the beach of Magaluf, before consuming several lagers, is his way of winding down.

In fact it cannot be long before he invites Jeremy Clarkson, hater of big Government, millionaire, Repton School, into the Cabinet. They could come up with a plan where class segregation operates in European resorts, and places such as Benidorm, Ibiza and Zante are given to the lower classes to enjoy, while being banned from Corsica, San Moritz and Tuscany, which are reserved for the chattering classes.

We can have a Big Society at home, where we are all in it together, so long as we magically separate once we walk through Customs.

Not that the working class behave any worse when on holiday, but they simply lack the panache to carry off drunken abuse and assaults without shaming their nation

Emergency services

AROUND 30 emergency service members are gearing up to take part in a boxing match to raise cash for wounded soldiers.

Proceeds from the Help The Heroes charity event, being held on May 21, will go towards building a personnel recovery centre at the Army's Colchester Garrison to help soldiers recover from injury or illness and return them to duty or civilian life.

The Bedfordshire Police team is captained by Detective Sergeant Ryan Brammer, who is based at Luton Police Station, and will include officers from all across the county.

Det Sgt Brammer, who has been in the force for ten years, said: “I first heard about this through an internal email and I thought it would be a great opportunity to raise money for a great cause.

“The boxing is very new to me and I have stepped up a training regime to help me with my fitness and I'm going to a trainer.

“There has been lots of support for the fire service and quite a lot for the police so I am hoping the event will be a big sell-out.

“Having spoken to other officers there are a couple who have limited experience with Thai boxing or normal boxing but most of them are as raw to it as I am.

“There will be 15 of us on each side and there will be three one minute rounds and they're going to run in succession of each other. It will happen quite quickly.

POLICE officers and firefighters are currently in training in preparation for a boxing competition in the name of fundraising for soldiers wounded in the line of duty.

Reporter CHRISTINA JOHNSON interviewed the captains of the opposing teams to find out more about the event, which takes place next month.

“There's also going to be a DJ, a military band to open the event, a raffle and an auction so there's lots going on all in support of Help The Heroes.

“There will also be free entry for military personnel. Any help and support the public can give will be greatly appreciated.”

Richie Barrow, the captain of the Bedfordshire and Luton Fire and Rescue Service team, said: “We have got together a team of boxers from fire stations across the county.

“They are all training hard and eager to represent the fire and rescue service.

“But more importantly everybody taking part is supporting the same important cause – regardless of the team they are representing.

“I took on this challenge as I know just how valuable the work of Help for Heroes is.

“I spent seven years in the army, including two sixth month tours of Afghanistan, and saw mates get injured and undergo extensive rehabilitation.

"So I have witnessed the excellent work of Help for Heroes at close hand."

Mr Barrow left the army in 2008, and is now a firefighter based in Luton.

The personnel recovery centre in Colchester will be the first purpose-built facility of its kind and will provide residential accommodation for 29 soldiers and 31 day attendees.

It is being delivered in partnership with the Ministry of Defence and The Royal British Legion, as well as other service charities and Government departments.

The night is being organised by Lee Brown Events and Mr Brown said: "This spring I am holding a police versus fire service boxing event in Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire, Kent, Suffolk, North East London and South West London all raising money for the charity Help for Heroes."

"This year I am aiming to raise £100,000 and the money will be heading towards the new building under construction in Colchester."

The competition will be held at the Liquid and Envy Club, Gordon Street, and tickets cost £15 if bought in advance.

There will be a limited number of tickets on the door which will cost £20.

Doors open at 5.30pm with the fights starting at 6.30pm.

What is Easter?

Easter celebrates the resurrection of Jesus, which according to Christian belief happened on the third day after his crucifixion. In the Roman Catholic Church, Easter is an eight-day feast called the Octave of Easter. Many Christian denominations celebrate this resurrection on Easter Day or Easter Sunday.

The first Easter eggs, dating back thousands of years were painted red and the tradition of painting eggs (goose, duck or hen) continued and became more elaborate through the centuries.

The first chocolate eggs appeared in the early 1800s, although the nature of chocolate (at that time) made creating a hollow egg something of an achievement. A hundred years later the improved chocolate making process plus mass production created the commercially available, relatively low cost, chocolate Easter Egg and within the following hundred years it became the dominant gift for Easter. As well as the giving and receiving of traditional gifts, Easter is also a symbol of spring approaching with, hopefully, better weather & longer days. The extended Easter weekend is also an ideal chance to get together with family and friends to enjoy the activities on offer in Milton Keynes.

INTRODUCTION

Spring-cleaning can be fun!

So roll up those sleeves, pull on the marigolds and get stuck in.

EVEN for the professionally non-house-proud, come April, there is something tantalising about sprucing up our homes and clearing out the clutter.

But what if you want to do more than wash the net curtains and dust behind the sideboard?

Since time began, the arrival of spring has prompted us to wake up, shape up and scrub up our homes and gardens nicely so that we can sit back and enjoy them for the rest of the year.

Easter is the busiest time of the year for home improvements so if you are rethinking the whole kit and kaboodle in your kitchen or planning to flush away those old, outworn ideas in your bathroom, check out our spring fresh suggestions.

Back in December when snow brought the country to a halt and the days never really got light at all who could have imagined sitting outside on a summer's evening until the last streaks of red have faded from the sky?

As the days get longer and the nights get warmer make the magical most of the outside space that you have.

With a little thought and creativity it's not too hard or costly to move seamlessly from winter into spring and spring into summer.

If it's all change in your home this Easter then here at Luton on Sunday we've got some handy hints to help you style your home and garden in line with the new season.

Let's be honest; it's a lot more fun than spring-cleaning!

Room for living

THESE days, going green at home doesn't mean painting the entire place the colour of spinach.

In 2011 the living room has to literally 'live up' to its reputation. It needs to be practical in design, attractive to look at and comfortable to relax in. No pressure then.

Eco-friendly flooring materials are becoming increasingly popular. Bamboo is in demand because of its attractive neutral tones and also because the wood is enduring, abundant and grows super fast.

Add colourful texture and warmth with big bright cushions or rugs made of recycled materials or natural fabrics.

Seating and storage options need to pay their way. Armchairs or sectional sofas that can be mixed and matched to suit different arrangements are back in vogue.

They need to be easy to take care of and eco-friendly as a bonus, as do storage items that can accommodate TV's, DVD players and surround sound systems.

Earthy tones are dominating living room design in 2011. Grey is this year's favourite neutral matched with shades of purple that range from deep, burgundy tinged aubergine to a pale, dusky lavender.

But if white and bright is right for you be daring and set off those clean walls with a splash of zinging colour such as shocking pink!

For the style-conscious, lighting is moving towards more mobile and accessible pieces. Continuing the eco-approach, there some terrific lamps and reading lights made out of recycled wood and plastic and there's no reason why you shouldn't decorate your walls with nature too.

Large statement scenes of plants, trees and flowers work very well in the contemporary living room and they can be as realistic or as abstract as you like.

In the living room, 2011 is all about a freshness of approach and integrity - but it's also always going to be about what you like.

The heart of the home

IT'S taken soul-searching, sleepless nights and weeks of financial planning but you've finally made the decision. You're going to have a new kitchen.

You can change the look of the rest of the house without too much major upheaval but this is the big one. You'll probably only remodel your kitchen once or twice over the years so it is really important to get it right and how you want it.

Your kitchen has to reflect your lifestyle which probably means that it will have to function on a number of different levels. But bear in mind that sometimes it pays to spend a little bit more so that the furniture and appliances you install will last without dating.

For those who love the idea of a country-style kitchen, natural wood, whether it's limed, stained, painted or waxed, offers plenty of potential to display pretty crockery and other kitchen accessories adding to the olde-worlde charm. And if you have the space, a scrubbed wooden table will serve multiple purposes as a food preparation worktop and a place around which to share good food, good conversation and good company.

A Shaker-inspired kitchen combines old and new by mixing the wood-dominated look of a traditional kitchen and the clean lines of a more contemporary one - the perfect choice for indecisive types!

Contemporary kitchen design is influenced by a need to keep appliances, fittings and accessories out of sight to enhance the crisp, clean lines of this look. Sleek is in. Mono shades sit comfortably within this style but this year, both peacock blue and purple are also proving popular.

A high gloss finish will maximise space and reflect light, but there's no compromise on functionality. Stainless steel appliances not only look stylish and sophisticated but also give the room a unified look and those silver clean lines signal top-end refrigerators, stoves and even rubbish bins.

'Fridges may be getting bigger and bigger but, as with electronic devices or wireless systems, built into walls or niches, new technologies make them virtually invisible.

A central island is a practical, space-saving element in any kitchen that can accommodate it. Granite, engineered stone or Corian (a man-made product) is easy to keep clean and beautiful to look at.

Sheet vinyl is the easiest flooring to keep clean but you can't beat reclaimed hardwood or natural stone for beauty and style.

Lighting is hugely important so worth taking time to plan. You'll need it light and bright for certain tasks but kinder for more relaxed dining or socialising.

And of course, twinkly LED lighting is not only environmentally friendly but also economically attractive.

Beautiful Bathrooms

TOOTHPASTE gets squirted, water gets splashed and clothes get thrown around in it.

Yet we really need our bathroom to be a little haven from the stresses and strains of everyday life.

It is the interchange section between sleeping and waking, activity and rest - whether we're taking a refreshing shower to prepare us for the day ahead or a long, relaxing soak after an exhausting one. So what do we need from this all-important space?

Functionality obviously but thereafter there's no reason why you can't indulge your whims and fancies just as you would in any other room of the house.

If you are planning a bathroom makeover, this season's style is predominantly minimal. Soft and soothing lines with natural materials remain key.

If your budget allows, go for products with longevity and high quality combined with traditional workmanship; a mix of contemporary classic design with a sense of luxury.

It sounds like a contradiction in terms but neutral colours are still strong. This year has seen the emergence of a sophisticated subtle palette of muted earthy tones in greys, grassy greens, aubergine and stone. But introduce a daring splash of vibrant colour for a modern twist on the spa-at-home theme.

As for bathroom furniture, modular remains the most popular choice and it can be pieced together to create the exact look you want.

But there will always be a market for quality bespoke floor-standing pieces in warm woods or muted tones.

If you're a sucker for a lovely hot bath before bed, free standing tubs remain strong contenders for that touch of luxury and relaxation.

Part tiling is a strong trend; combine simple splash-backs with fully tiled feature walls in contrast to painting remaining walls in a complementary or statement colour.

LED lighting remains the top choice for ambience and boutique styling but consider light 'layers' - light from different sources - controlled separately to create different effects.

A warm, fluffy bath sheet, toasting nicely on a towel rail is bliss but for a funkier looking heat source designer radiators now come in amazing shapes and finishes including wood and glass and in colours that include soft greys, creams, white and metallic finishes.

Under floor heating is becoming more and more popular because it provides an efficient, silent, invisible and highly practical heating solution.

Wet rooms flood the market! These state-of-the-art mini spas are particularly ideal for the sporty family in a hurry or where space is at a premium. They're a doddle to keep clean - no more slimey shower curtains or screens that get grained with limescale because the water simply drains away through a hole in the floor. But wet rooms do tend to be the more expensive option as the floor needs to be lined to make it waterproof. And be prepared for everything, including the loo paper, to get utterly soaked.

HOME & GARDEN

At home - in the garden

WHETHER it's a balcony, a patio, a back yard or a garden that you've got - if the weather this summer is kind then, odds are, you are going to want to spend some time out in it.

But what do you need from your garden? Do you need space for drying washing; growing vegetables; do you need room for a greenhouse or shed? What about a safe play area for children; a secure place for dogs; a place in which to entertain and relax? Is it a working plot or a peaceful haven that you're after?

A good place to start is to draw an aerial plan of your garden noting anything that cannot be changed or moved such as big trees, large sheds and other buildings. Then you can think about creating zones - plants can be used as effective screens to block out the more ugly and unsightly elements.

If you love to cook and entertain alfresco a permanent barbecue area could be right for you. But think carefully about where you site it - the neighbours won't thank you if the smoke blows straight in through their French windows or onto their freshly laundered washing hanging out to dry.

Oh, and keep it away from anything that you might set alight such as fences. Global warming might not yet have reached your garden so how about raising the temperature artificially?

They may not pack quite the same thermal punch but chimneas are cosy, more environmentally sound and look nicer than the modern metal heaters. Create atmosphere and interesting shadows by adding subtle lighting along pathways or under statement plants or ornaments.

Hang little lanterns in trees and burn huge church candles inside floor-sited lanterns. Even simple jam jars with tea lights are effective but watch out - they get hot! Seating is important.

A mix of permanent and temporary is ideal. You can enjoy the convenience of benches or cast concrete seating all year round but you will need to store your designer furniture away from the damaging effects of rain, wind and frosts in the winter.

If minimalist and clean lines are what you want from an outside space consider adding smooth reflective surfaces, modern accessories, a Japanese planting scheme and a water feature to get that stylish 'zen' effect. Straight symmetrical walkways through your garden lend themselves to a contemporary design.

For a more traditional approach introduce meandering gravel pathways or stepping stones across the lawn and bark chippings, hanging baskets, traditional furniture and big bold bushes of colourful plants.

However you decide to develop your garden it makes sense for it to fit in with the style of your indoor living space. Ideally it will be a seamless extension to your home and one in which you can make the most of the light nights, the warmer weather and yes, the alfresco life.

Come out and dig in!

Capability Brown knew a thing or two about gardens. Nobody could map out a formal Italian terrace like he could; he was a dab hand with a trowel in the herbaceous border and he had an eye for creating a stunning vista across lakes and rolling, sheep-nibbled parkland.

Your garden may not be quite in the Hampton Court or the Blenheim Palace league but you'd be amazed at what you can do (with just a little forethought and elbow grease) on even the smallest patch.

In these economically difficult times garden trends have to tick a number of boxes not least the need to be practical, environmentally sound and imaginatively designed - and all without spending too much money.

But cheer up: in 2011 you don't need to sacrifice any of those ideals to achieve your own little Eden.

However unpredictable our English weather is, there's enough evidence to suggest that water is fast becoming a precious resource.

Collecting rain in a water butt will help keep your garden growing through even the driest of summers. And there's nothing like the sound of a fountain trickling lazily in the background to relax you through those long hot summer afternoons.

Right on trend this summer is the wild lawn. It's more environmentally-friendly and, as long as you have the right kind of grass, you'll only need to mow it once or twice a month.

You can't hurry a garden. Unless you've got a team of BBC Ground Force heavies to come and give it an instant makeover it could take years to get your plot just the way you want it.

But there are a few tricks of the trade you can bear in mind. Hot colours, such as reds, orange, bright yellow and even brilliant white will jump out at you.

They will make a large space more intimate and a small garden feel even tinier. Cool colours - blues, soft pinks and lilacs mimic that atmospheric 'blue remembered hills' haze.

Plant up flowers, shrubs and bushes in those colours round the perimeter and it will make your garden feel bigger.

Similarly, painting fences in muted hues will add to the perception of receding boundaries.

You can borrow a few tips in perspective from painters by running a path straight down the centre of your garden that gradually narrows as it reaches the back fence. Or clip a hedge so that it diminishes in height the further away from you it gets.

Growing your own vegetables and herbs, whether it's on half an acre or in a window box, is a great way to get the whole family involved in an activity that will give hours of fun and good exercise as well as putting some delicious homegrown produce on the table.

Be part of an outstanding, innovative team and help students reach their full potential. The Barnfield Federation is made up of Barnfield College, Barnfield West and South Academies and the worlds first FE sponsored Studio School Enterprise Academy. Barnfield is a Beacon College, graded 'outstanding' by Ofsted, an Investor in People (IIP) Champion and the World Skills Champion for the Eastern region.

The Federation was formed in 2007, when Barnfield broke new ground sponsoring two significantly underperforming secondary schools and creating academies. In under three years, GCSE results have more than tripled and from a position of special measures, they are now judged as 'outstanding' and 'good' by Ofsted. These are the highest results achieved in the history of these schools. To continue this success and further develop and expand the Federation a new Barnfield trust model has been created.

NATIONAL HERO: Jason Maguire steers Ballabriggs to victory then celebrates (inset) with trainer Donald McCain, son of Red Rum trainer Ginger McCain

It's McCain again

BALLABRIGGS ensured the most famous name in Aintree history was in lights again as he grabbed John Smith's Grand National glory for Donald McCain, son of Ginger McCain, trainer of the legendary Red Rum.

The 10-year-old was prominent throughout, but appeared to be running on empty after the final fence as Oscar Time, ridden by Sam Waley-Cohen, the amateur jockey who also won the Cheltenham Gold Cup, loomed large.

However, Jason Maguire's mount, a 14-1 chance, found more on the gruelling run to the line to take glory in the world's greatest steeplechase by two-and-a-quarter lengths.

Tony McCoy gave last year's winner, Don't Push It, every chance and the top weight put up a gallant defence of his crown to finish third. Another National

HOW THEY FINISHED
1ST BALLABRIGGS	14-1
2ND Oscar Time	14-1
3RD Don't Push It	9-1
4TH State Of Play	28-1

veteran, State Of Play, flew home to finish fourth with Niche Market fifth and 15-2 favourite The Midnight Club sixth.

Maguire had to pass the doctor on Friday after a bad fall 24 hours earlier and he was in danger of missing the ride.

Maguire could have ridden Silver Birch in the 2007 renewal, but stayed loyal to McCain's Cloudy Lane and probably thought his chance of glory had gone.

But he gave Ballabriggs a fantastic spin, jumping for fun at the head of affairs.

For McCain, it is the culmination of an ambition to join his father, who also sent out Amberleigh House to victory in 2004, on the roll of honour. He said: "It's just fantastic for all involved. I've been associated with the Grand National all of my life.

"We're not greedy, we are just pleased to have nice horses around. For a while I think I got a bit Cheltenham-obsessed, but you only have to look around this place to see how special it is."

A fearful Ginger McCain said: "It just proves that a good trainer can come from anywhere, despite the breeding!"

"Aintree always comes up with wonderful stories and it is the case again."

Winning owner Trevor Hemmings added: "It's great. I had my heart in my mouth, but it has all worked out.

"Congratulations to Donald and all the team for all the hard work they have done.

To follow in the footsteps of his father, Donald must be a genius."

BARCLAYS PREMIER LEAGUE ROUND-UP

LEADERS Manchester United went 10 points clear at the top of the Premier League as they enjoyed a comfortable 2-0 win at home to Fulham.

Dimitar Berbatov and Antonio Valencia put them two goals up by the break with Nani playing a starring role.

Florent Malouda ensured CHELSEA did not lose further ground as they beat WIGAN 1-0 at Stamford Bridge to remain 11 points off United.

Peter Crouch scored twice on his return to action following his controversial red card against Real Madrid on Tuesday as TOTTENHAM overcame STOKE 3-2 at White Hart Lane.

In the relegation tussle at the other end of the table, third-bottom WEST HAM were destroyed 3-0 at BOLTON.

Liam Ridgewell's mistake helped BLACKBURN take a 1-1 draw in their crunch clash at home to BIRMINGHAM.

WEST BROM continued their resurgence under Roy Hodgson as they twice came from behind to win 3-2 at SUNDERLAND and, in the early game, WOLVES suffered a comprehensive 3-0 hammering by EVERTON.

Wenger: At least we entertain!

TODAY'S ACTION

BLACKPOOL V ARSENAL 1.30pm, SST

ARSENE WENGER maintains Arsenal have never "cheated" their fans out of ambition – and has no intention of throwing in the towel to satisfy the critics' call for change.

The Gunners boss has once again found his unwavering faith in youth called into question as the club face the possibility of a sixth season without silverware.

Wenger, 61, said: "My worry is to do as well as I can with the team and to get them to play decent football, so that people come and pay for their tickets and are not bored.

"I have watched a lot of games in my life and I think we can have a clear conscience that we do not try to cheat our people."

WENGER: Honest

On-fire Hamilton pipped to post

LEWIS HAMILTON has hailed the "pure strength" within McLaren that carried him within a whisker of ending the worst pole drought of his Formula One career.

For a fleeting moment it appeared as if Red Bull's recent dominance was poised to come to an end, only for Hamilton to be pipped at the death by reigning champion Sebastian Vettel in qualifying for today's Malaysian Grand Prix.

Hamilton was thwarted by a last-lap charge from Vettel, one the German began with just four seconds left on the clock as he cut it incredibly fine. "I've no doubts we can overtake these guys," said Hamilton.

"It's just a question of when, so we have to keep pushing, keep on developing the car, taking everything to the max."

HAMILTON: In second

Rovers suffer narrow loss after a controversial goal

ZAMARETTO DIVISION ONE MIDLANDS
UXBRIDGE 1
BARTON ROVERS 0

BARTON Rovers will feel a little aggrieved to have lost this game as goalkeeper Richard Wilmot appeared to have been fouled before the ball went into the back of the net.

Uxbridge were on top from the start as they applied pressure and tried to test Wilmot.

On 40 minutes the home side were awarded a free kick which was curled into the box.

Wilmot jumped and seemed to be fouled as Rovers screamed at the referee but he waved away the protests leaving Uxbridge to simply tap the ball in to take the lead.

In an instant response Ricky Case had a one-to-one which he really should have finished but the angle was just too tight.

The beginning of the second period remained in Uxbridge's control as they continued to have long range efforts but still finding it hard to break through Rovers' defence.

The last 20 minutes of the match took a turn as Rovers became the dominating force, creating more chances than they had in the whole game.

Case had another brilliant opportunity but the ball struck the side netting.

Bilal Hassan managed to get his head to a fantastic ball in at the back post which forced a save from Uxbridge's keeper.

Barton play Woodford United at home next Saturday.

Barton Reserves play Bedford St Peter at home on Monday night, with a 7.45pm kick-off.

Plater shakes down new Honda

MOTORSPORT

STEVE Plater joined forces with Keith Amor and John McGuinness for a shakedown test at Darley Moor recently to ensure there were no minor problems with the new CBR1000RR World Endurance bikes before heading off to Europe for a series of pre-season tests.

The planned test at Donington Park had to be cancelled because of the late delivery of some new parts for the Superbikes and so the Honda TT Legends team moved on to Albacete in Spain for a full on test session with Dunlop.

Steve, from Woodhall Spa, near Lincoln, enjoys the Albacete circuit and said: "Albacete is my favourite Spanish circuit for testing as you spend so much time at full lean, twisty and technical – making it easy to feel changes made to the bike's geometry."

The three riders were joined by some new staff, some with Endurance experience and some without – but all proved to be very capable.

The first day was sunny, not too warm but dry ideal conditions to get some basic mileage in, blow away the cobwebs and make the first steps to finding a good base setting for the Honda.

Plater said: "Although we have access to HM plant Honda's data, our bikes are quite different as the Endurance bikes have wider swing-arms, fork yokes and bigger fuel tanks that make them heavier with harder compound tyres for distance.

"The main goal for this first test was to find the parameters of the Honda's working window with these different components. This can be tough enough for one rider but for three riders to try every different setting takes a great deal more time.

"By the end of day one we had worked through a number of settings but none of us was too happy with the bikes' reactions through Albacete's twisty turns.

"The original plan for day two was to try some race simulation but we decided it was more important to find the main parameters of the bike and so we sat down to make a plan to check ride heights front and rear, wheel base lengths, all Dunlop's tyres, some different mappings and some simple rider positioning."

The team worked very well together thus making the rider's job much easier, and although day two was extremely busy, the hard work paid dividends resulting in all three lapping comfortably, competitively and within one second of each other.

As there are still many things to test on the bikes and also in the pit box, the back-up team stayed an extra day to test wheel changes and to prepare for next week's test at Magny Cours when Plater and his teammates will have the chance to check out the circuit ahead of the first round of the World Endurance championship – the Le Mans 24 hour race – that takes place over April 16 and 17.

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

SOUTH MIDLANDS PREMIER

DUNSTABLE TOWN effectively consigned Kentish Town to relegation with a 4-1 win.

Jonathan Barnett and Jonathan Cooper scored before Kentish replied. Dunstable completed the win through Barnett's second and Russell Clark's goal.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

CRAWLEY GREEN and AFC DUNSTABLE both won their respective matches to pile more importance on their upcoming clash.

Wednesday's derby match could decide if either club is promoted.

Crawley beat New Bradwell St Peter 2-0 thanks to a brace in the last ten minutes from substitute Andy Randall.

AFC beat second-placed Kings Langney 3-1 after two goals from JJ Billie and a third from Richard Harker.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION TWO

TOTTERNHOE continue to put pressure on the top clubs in the league after a convincing 4-1 victory over Pitstone & Ivinghoe.

Sean Bishop and Ian Seakes scored early on to take a 2-0 lead, but the hosts pulled one back from a penalty after Jack Lorder fouled in the box.

Stefan Tracey and Chris Golding sealed the win in the second half.

Totternhoe play Winslow United, who are joint second with them, on Tuesday night away, kick off at 7.45pm.

CADDINGTON slumped to an embarrassing 5-0 defeat at home to Aston Clinton.

The hosts did create chances with Jason Allen hitting the bar and Robbie Saint striking the post.

Manager Adam Flemming said: "We started brightly but the sun got to us, we have a real lack of players at the club at the moment."

DIVISION TWO CUP SEMI-FINAL

61FC are through to the final of the Division Two Cup after narrowly beating hosts Kent Athletic 2-1.

They went 2-0 up early on through a Ryan Smith header and a penalty which was given for a handball on the line, and despite no card being shown Kevin McManus slotted home.

On 35 minutes Kent pulled one back from a corner.

The final will be played on May 4 at Amphill Town FC, kick-off at 7.45pm.

win as Hatters club Southport

BY MARC BAZELEY
sport@LSNmedia.co.uk

BLUE SQUARE BET PREMIER
LUTON TOWN 6
SOUTHPORT 0

GARY Brabin has had to wait four games for his first win as Luton Town manager, but it was perhaps inevitable that it when it did come it would be against Southport - the club who he both played for and managed.

After three consecutive draws since Brabin stepped up from second in command to replace Richard Money, the Hatters finally broke their duck in a one sided contest that takes them a step closer to securing a spot in the Blue Square Bet Premier play-offs. Amari Morgan-Smith and Robbie Willmott had put them in front at the interval, with the rest of the goals coming in the last six minutes as Southport imploded. Freddie Murray, Jason Walker, Zdenek Kroca and Claude Gnaka from the penalty spot sealed a crushing victory, while the visitors also had Adam Flynn sent off after the final whistle for abusing the referee.

The home side were dominant and they almost took the lead through the most unlikely of sources in the 13th minute.

Walker picked out Kroca, who had gone up for a corner, with a great through ball, only for the imposing centre half to blast the shot high over the bar.

Luton took the lead on 22 minutes and it was Morgan-Smith who put the Hatters ahead from a set piece. Southport had already conceded a free kick 25 yards out, but when Aaron Turner was deemed to have handled Willmott's shot that saw another one awarded on the edge of the area. Morgan-Smith took it and curled the ball into the bottom corner. It was not until the 35th minute that the visitors were able to manage a shot on goal when they were awarded a free kick on 20 yards out. Nevertheless, Hatters goalkeeper Mark Tyler was untroubled by McGinn's attempt as it went harmlessly over.

Two minutes later, Luton added to their tally. Lawless perfectly threaded a through-ball to Willmott who beat the offside trap before sweetly chipping the on-coming McMillan for his fourth goal of the season.

The away side showed more urgency when the second half got underway while Luton also appeared to slacken off a bit, but they were still unable to create any clear cut chances in what was a fairly quiet opening 15 minutes after half time. Tyler was called into action when Kroca failed to head clear a ball into the box.

The veteran Luton stopper was alert to the danger though and got down before striker Daly could get there.

Then on 65 minutes McNeil headed over from six yards out, while fellow Southport sub Tony Gray hit a fizzing shot from the edge of the area to test Tyler. The impressive John Paul Kissock also kept the Hatters goalie honest in the 70th minute with a curling free kick that he turned away. The home side countered after clearing the resulting corner and Walker fired just over after a fine move that started with Gnaka's surging run from deep. He passed to Lawless, who in turn fed the striker, but Walker could not get his shot on target.

But the Sandgrounders misery was compounded six minutes from the end when Murray received the ball from a throw-in, waltzed into the area unchallenged and when he tried his luck the shot took a deflection and went in. Walker's hard work was also rewarded in the 88th minute when he stabbed home after his initial shot had been parried by McMillan.

Kroca was on target with a powerful header in added time to make it five, but there was further drama when McMillan gifted the home side a penalty. Gnaka smashed home as the Hatters picked up a much-deserved, and much-needed, three points in their bid to make certain of a play-off place.

LUTON TOWN: Tyler; Newton, G. Pilkington (captain), Kroca, Murray; Howells, Lawless, Keane, Willmott (Gnaka 56); Morgan-Smith (Barnes-Homer 72), Walker

Stoppage time try defeats Luton in entertaining game

NATIONAL THREE MIDLANDS
LUTON 14
SHEFFIELD TIGERS 19

AFTER winning the East Midlands Cup last weekend, Luton were sent crashing back down to Earth after cruelly losing to Sheffield Tigers in the eighth minute of stoppage time.

A succession of injuries and sin bins led to the long period of time being added on, and Tigers took full advantage by driving the ball over from 20 yards to win the match.

This was a thrilling advert for rugby as both sides battled hard and showed enough quality to earn the victory.

Tigers' first try, after 25 minutes, was conceded when Luton had two men in the sin bin, but they hit back seven minutes later.

Mike Weston ran 40 yards to touch down, scoring the try of the game in the process.

Joe Murphy's conversion made the score 7-5 to the hosts.

On the stroke of half time, a second Tigers try with a conversion turned the match on its head.

But Luton dominated proceedings after the break, justifiably retaking the lead with a try from prop Joe Lynch. Murphy converted for the second time to give Luton a 14-12 advantage.

The entertaining contest never looked like petering out, and despite the final whistle drawing closer there always seemed like there would be one more chance for somebody to snatch victory.

Unfortunately, Luton lost a line-out in the 88th minute, and Tigers powered home a try to steal a last gasp win.

Cadman to fight Morby in super middleweight belt rematch

BOXING

GRAHAM Earl has confirmed that his next show at the iconic York Hall on Saturday, May 7, will feature two Southern Area title bouts, including a rematch between Daniel Cadman and Paul Morby.

The Luton boxer-turned-promoter put on the original bout at the Bethnal Green venue back in January which ended in a 96-96 draw on the scorecard of referee Jeff Hinds after ten rounds.

Cadman (13(4)-6-1) and Morby (6-5-1), who defeated Matthew Barney to win the belt last October, will again square off for the Area super middleweight title, while Leon Williams (6(2)-3) defends his cruiserweight Area title against Danny Couzens (4-5).

"It's going to be a cracking fight and a cracking show. We've got two Southern Area title fights on it," said Earl. "I'm also hoping to be debuting a new heavyweight on the show - I should know for sure in a day or so."

ROUND TWO: Daniel Cadman (left) and Paul Morby (right) will go at it again in a rematch for the Southern Area super middleweight belt on Graham Earl's next show

The show is confirmed as seeing at least two other fighters making their debuts. Mark 'The Situation' Ginley - the latest Belfast prospect to sign for Earl - makes his pro bow, as does Sam Standing.

Elsewhere on the card, Luton-based American middleweight Manny Oshinronde will be looking to chalk up the first win of his pro career after his last fight ended in a technical draw after being stopped by a cut above opponent Jahmaine Smyle's eye.

Terry Holmes, Michael Grant and Joe 'The Faith' Hillerby are the other confirmed boxers on the undercard.

The announcement comes after Earl was forced to postpone his show scheduled for Belfast's King's Hall last Saturday, where he had been hoping to exhibit many of the city's pugilists that have joined his stable.

Earl said: "I'm really disappointed that we have had to postpone Fists of Fury, it had all the makings of being a really fantastic show. "It's been one of those weeks, various circumstances conspired to put the show at risk early in the week, but when we started to get fighter injuries as well we couldn't see any other option but to call it off."

The former British and Commonwealth lightweight champion is still optimistic of rescheduling that event, although it will be a few months before anything is confirmed.

RUGBY UNION UPDATE

MIDLANDS TWO EAST (SOUTH)
STOCKWOOD PARK 18
HUNTINGTON AND DISTRICT 14

WATERFIELD brothers Kacey and Alan were no match for visiting Huntingdon as they clinched the game with their second half try.

Paul Harman kicked two penalties in the first half leaving the score 7-6 to the visitors at the break.

Chris Watters touched down with Harman converting to leave Stockwood trailing 14-13.

Kacey Waterfield then made an outstanding run and put brother Alan through to score and steal the points.

Stockwood did then find themselves on the backfoot protecting their delicate lead all the way to the end.

Stockwood play Leicester Forest away next Saturday.

■ DUNSTABIANS narrowly lost 27-25 away to Spalding in Midlands One East.

Gary's glee after victory unites fans and players

BY MARC BAZELEY
sport@londonmedia.co.uk

THE look on Gary Brabin's face as he came out for his post-match press conference said it all. Beaming with a smile from ear to ear, the Luton Town boss could finally celebrate his first win since taking over the managerial hotseat at Kenilworth Road.

It was not just a win, it was a crushing victory for the Hatters. It also came against Southport – the club Brabin represented 14 times as a player in 2006 and then managed to a place in the Conference North play-offs two years later.

"It was a great way to get your first victory," said Brabin after seeing his side put six past the hapless Sandgrounders, with six different players on the scoresheet for the hosts. "It probably sounds easy now we have got the win, but you could see piecing together what we are trying to do."

"From a selfish point of view, I wanted my first win but, first and foremost, with the togetherness of the fans and the players – they deserved it."

"The players have done everything I have asked of them and responded

OFF TO FLYER:
Amari Morgan-Smith celebrates Luton's opener with Keith Keane brilliantly. There is a really good atmosphere around the place and they have worked hard.

"Credit to Southport, they had a little 20 minute period when they put us under pressure and tested our defensive side, which we have been working on, and I thought the lads did it fantastically well."

"All of the attacking players are firing on all cylinders and at the moment we are spreading the goals throughout the team."

Amari Morgan-Smith, Robbie Willmott, Freddie Murray, Jason Walker, Zdenek Kroca and Claude Gnaka were the men on target, and although four of the goals came inside the last six minutes the scoreline probably reflected how one-sided the majority of the game was.

Gnaka, who scored a penalty in added time, was praised by Brabin after coming on as a second half substitute. The boss also revealed that he had rested the Frenchman to make sure he is at his peak fitness for the closing stages of the season.

He said: "Claude's attitude has been a different class. I told him what I think of him and it was a difficult decision I had to make for him to miss out."

"We know what Claude Gnaka can do; he has played a lot of games, he is a fit lad, but I want Gnaka at his best. I don't just want to play him week in, week out because of what he can do – I want him to deserve that chance. I've pulled him out while he is on fire and I told him I wanted to use him second half, and I expect the same attitude. He has come on and he has been brilliant."

Crawley Town's 3-0 victory at Tamworth meant Steve Evans' men secured the Blue Square Bet Premier title, and they are the next opponents for Luton when they head to the Broadfield Stadium on Tuesday evening.

And while Hatters fans may love to spoil the party for the Red Devils in the midweek meeting, Brabin is more concerned with making sure they get three points to cement their place in the play-offs.

"Full credit to them, they've won it," he said, adding: "There's nothing we can do about it and we don't want to be relying on other teams, we have to concentrate on ourselves."

"They'll enjoy the day; they'll be really up for it and I'm sure they'll note the occasion, parading the trophy and whatever else."

"We've just got to go there, be professional, not get wound up and carry on doing what we have been doing the last few games."
